Room Parent

You MAY be asked to help with the following:

- Help plan, organize and host Class Parties (usually a Halloween Party, December Holiday Party and Valentines Party and end of the year party) depending on the number of Room Parent Volunteers for your class; you may not be involved with planning all the parties.
- Many Room Parents take responsibility for collecting for a Teacher Gift, in December and at the end of School. It is up to the Room Parent(s) whether or not to give a group gift.
- Helping in the classroom and/or at home, with Publishing Center.
- Be available to assist teacher throughout the school year.

This job does not require a major time commitment and is an excellent way to be involved with your child's classroom and the school.

Lead Room Parent

The lead room parent will be responsible for organizing and hosting all parties, classroom events and/or collection for teacher gifts. You are the “lead” contact for the teacher and classroom parents with questions regarding particular events and parties. You will work closely with the room parent coordinator in assisting with Teacher Appreciation week.. You may be required to make phone calls, send out emails and be of constant resource for this class and room parent coordinator. You must be available to assist with your classrooms Publishing Center books. This person will be responsible for working with all parents and teacher of the designated class to ensure an organized and fun parties and year for the classroom. You should only lead for one classroom but some exceptions may apply

This job DOES require a time commitment**
